Frank and His Mary Out for Title

No, that isn't a typographical botch and "Doug" isn't meant instead of "Frank." "Doug" isn't the only one who possesses a famous "Mary." Frank Moran, which is the correct Frank in the correct place in the head, has one that is well nigh as illustrious as that associated with the popular Douglas. Fairbanks has his Mary Pickford and Moran has his Mary Ann. Moran's "Mary" bears the same relation to the pugilistic world that Fairbanks' does to the film world. Both are a big "hit."

Moran, back from a successful invasion of London and Paris, is hunting trouble with our foremost heavyweights, not barring even Jack Dempsey, Moran, ensconced in the victrola shop of an Astor hotel divan, divested himself of the following intelligence concerning his "come-back."

"Yes, sir, I'm better right now than I ever was in my life. I can whip all these so-called contenders for the championship. Why, my old 'Mary Ann' is functioning as he never did before. And you know she was always a pretty rude dame with the rest of the boys. As for Dempsey, I'd like to meet him, too. We'd make a great fight. We both fight in the same style, you see—quick knockouts are our specialty. It would simply be a case of who landed first. If Mary Ann did, you know as well as I do that we'd have a genuine Irishman champion of the world again."

"As for Fulton, I'd beat him sure the next time. I was only starting my come-back in Newark last winter. If I had been in half the fine shape I am now I could have finished him within the first four rounds. I tired from hitting him as you will remember, and there wasn't the dynamite in Mary Ann then that there is today. I hear he whisted something when he left the ring that night. I'll make him whistle a different tune if we ever meet again. It'll be 'Oh What a Pal Was Mary,' and you know the way he'll mean it."

"To illustrate how efficiently Mary Ann is operating these days let me tell you how I bumped off Frank Goddard, one of the best heavyweights they have in England. Goddard is almost as big and as powerful as Jim Jeffries used to be. He can take a lot of jarring, too, needless to say. But every time Mary Ann collided with him he went down in a heap. When he came to after the knockout his mind was still in a 'jam.' He blinked up at the bright lights and then he turned to one of his seconds, remarking: 'Now hit's a foine day, old top. Wot d'ye say we go fishing?' He thought the arc light was the sun."

WEST COAST BOY PULLS SURPRISE

Los Angeles Swimmer Shows Speed at Olympic Try-outs in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Ray Kegeris of the Los Angeles Athletic club, a swimmer virtually unknown to the eastern swimming world, sprung a swimming tryouts in the Lincoln park lagoon Sunday by winning the 100 meter back stroke. Kegeris stroked the distance in 1:22 3-5, two and one-fifths seconds slower than the Olympic record held by Harry Hehner of the Illinois Athletic club. Norman Ross of the Illinois Athletic club, who won the 400 yard national A. U. championship in comparatively easy fashion.

Jack Howell of the Oakland Athletic club, who won the 400 meter stroke, was disqualified after Otto Wahle of New York, who has been appointed coach of the American Olympic swimming team, protested that Howell had advanced his shoulder instead of having both shoulders on a straight line at all times. First place in the event went to G. H. Taylor of the Chicago Athletic association.

The coach left for New York Sunday night. He said the make-up of the American team would be announced not later than Thursday.

DILLON AND RILEY TO BATTLE AT GARY

The Gary Screw and Bolt Co. Athletic club will stage a boxing carnival July 14 with Jack Dillon and Soldier Riley in the main go. Soldier Riley has met some of the best heavyweights in the country, among whom is "Bob" Martin. A. E. F. champ, whom he fought to a draw in a ten round bout.
